Affairs of the Sri Venkataramanaswami temple in Bangalore Fort.

Docket- No. 107 Dated 28th March 1905

With reference to the Dewan's orders communicated in Mr. M. Shama Rao's memo dy 4th March 1905, the following note is respectfully submitted regarding the affairs of the Sri Venkataramanaswami temple in Bangalore Fort.

The temple is a Muzrai institution endowed with a cash grant of Rs 4-6-10 per mensem or Rs 52-6-0 per annum. A small extent of 4 acres 23 guntas of land assessed at Rs 13-0-0 is endowed to the temple as inam in Kembattahalli Jodi village of the Bangalore Taluk. On this inam land, a sum of Rs 300-0 is paid to the Jodidar Slip B

To supervise the affairs of this Temple, the undermentioned Gentlemen were appointed Dharmadarsis under orders conveyed in Nott. no 1226 dt 16th May 1900.

(1) Mr. S. Venkataramiengar, Extra Asstt Commr.
(2) Mr. Mandi Venkataramanayya.
(3) Mr. Jebikote Gundappa
(4) Mr. A. J. Sugaravelu mudr.
(5) Pandit. Widwan Tirumalachar
(6) Mr. N Varadachar

In April 1902 Mr. Gundappa (no 3) having resigned, Mr. T. Lakshmi Narasimha Rao was appointed in his stead In Oct. 1902, Mr. Sugaravelu mudr. (no 4) also resigned the place; and latterly when the Excise Commissioner's Office was removed to the 'Cola Lodge' from the Fort, Mr. S. Venkatara also resigned the appointment.

Upon the representation of the Dharmadarsis that the Sadik allowance was insufficient to meet the Padikara charges in the temple, Sanction was conveyed in April 1901, to the grant of 30 Seers of rice every month from the Chattram at Bidadi.

The temple being an ancient and time-honored institution largely resorted to by Brahmins & other Hindus, the Dharmadarsis & others interested used to take a deal of interest in it and these & the official class of people used to contribute towards the performance of services in the temple & celebrating the annual Car festival and connected feeding on the occasion. Pandit Nimmalathar, one of the Dharmadarsis & certain others collected subscriptions and got a silver "Shatari" prepared & consecrated it in the temple

Some of the Dharmadarsis complained against Mr. Mandi Venkataramanayya, one of the Dharmadarsis, stating that he had with him a sum of Rs 175 being the contributions received from the devotees & praying that the amount might be recovered & deposited in the Govt Savings Bank. Enquiry was instituted in the matter, and as directed by the Dewan, orders were issued in Govt Pro: 1816 dy 15th Dec: 1902 directing the recovery of the amount and crediting it to the Savings of the Temple. Mandi Venkataramanayya however, urged that the money was collected for the purpose of conducting feeding, and that the money was spent for feeding. The Dy Comm: reported the matter & it is under correspondence.

It was also brought to notice that a sum of Rs 493-7-9 to the credit of the temple, stood invested in the Savings Bank in the name of Sri Singaravelu Mood: one of the Dharmadarsis. Under Dewan's orders he was written to, to have the amount transferred to the name of the Taluk Auildar The Dharmadarsis objected to do so at first, but latterly on their agreeing to pay make over the amount towards the repairs of the temple, the D/Commr has been requested to take charge of the amount immediately.

The temple does not possess a car of its own. During car festivals one used to be borrowed for the purpose. In the year 1903, the car had met with an accident × when it passed the N.E. corner of the fort over a small cross drain, the thin stone slabs covering the drain having given way. It is reported that the cost of repairing the car will cost about Rs 800, but Govt are unwilling to sanction the expenditure, until all the income collected is deposited with Govt.

Repairs to the temple building to the extent of Rs 381-8-0 are reported to be urgently needed, and orders have not yet been passed for want of funds.

There have also been complaints against certain irregularities on the part of Vidwan Tirumala Char one of the Dharmadarsis. It is reported that he acted independently of the other Dharmadarsis in keeping from them all accounts of offerings &c received from devotees & this procedure is considered to be highly prejudicial to the interest of the institution. The troubles in connection with the management of the temple are under enquiry.

~~The Police Officer~~ the Police located in the Fort Palace having been removed, the help from the Official class has been withdrawn

In the case of such important temples whose cash grants were small when compared with their requirements the Govt have been graciously pleased to increase the cash Jaadik. In the Sri Harihareswaraswami temple at Harihar for instance, its Jaadik was raised from Rs 174-9-0 to Rs 600/-, the increased

Submitted 31/3/13

In addition to the cash grant and the rice allowance given by Government, it is learnt that some rice allowance for ~~myvadiyu~~ and oil for Deeparadhane are being given by some of the merchants in the city, regularly every month; and during the Ratholsava, all the Utsavams during the festival for 10 days are undertaken by devotees and subscriptions are also paid by them in the shape of grain or cash for Santarpane to be conducted on the car festival day. Besides, monthly subscriptions are collected to meet the pay of the Parichara-

Muzrai Secretary's remarks:-

This is a very ancient and important institution situated in the Fort of Bangalore. Its small Tasdik of ₹34 odd per mensem is very insufficient for duly carrying out the daily services. A largely signed petition is herewith submitted. Therein application is made for a grant of ₹30 from Government. I would restrict the amount to ₹20 per mensem and respectfully recommend it for sanction as a new grant from State Funds, The temple is a really important and useful one and deserves Government help. The special Utsavams &c. will be conducted from subscriptions from the public.

Owing to differences which arose among the Dharmadarsis, the Author has taken charge of the institution and is no longer after it. But as it is perhaps undesirable to do away with the gratuitous help of elders of local influence, it appears desirable to revise the List of Dharmadarsis and to appoint a Committee of them with a President for doing the executive work, as has been done in the case of the new Rameswara temple at Chamarajapet. On this point needful report will be obtained from the Deputy Commissioner and the matter submitted for orders.

Meanwhile, the question of an additional grant is now submitted for favour of orders.

4 Sri Venkataramana Swami temple, Fort, Bangalore, is an ancient and honored institution situated in the Fort of Bangalore and largely resorted to by all classes of people. The Patronage of the Mysore Class enjoyed by it was withdrawn subsequent to the removal of the Offices located in the Palace there. A largely signed petition of the respectable citizens of Bangalore has been received asking for a grant of Rs 30/- for the temple. It is at present only in receipt of a Small Jaedik of Rs 4-5-10 per mensem, which is hardly sufficient for the carrying out of the daily services. The temple is a really important and useful institution,

No 57 D 38 Now 1907

The Deputy Commissioner States that the members and Dharmadarsis propose to utilize the sanctioned Jasdik amount of Rs 24-5-10 as follows ——

1. Archak ——— Rs 6-0-0
2. Paricharak ——— 5-0-0
3. Vedaparayana & Mantrapushpa 4-0-0.
4. Paditara Deeparadhane 2-5-10
5. Valagadavaru ——— 2-0-0
6. Savings for car festival 5-0-0

Total Rs. 24-5-10.

It is further stated that the care takers pay may be met from other sources as usual and that the management may be conducted with the help of the Dharmadarsis under the Superviseon of the Taluk Amildar

11' 05

File No.	of 190	Muzrai Secretariat.

The Divisional Officer also supports the above proposal

Note

The original Jasdik to this temple was Rs 4-5-10 per mensem. A further grant of Rs 20/- per mensem was made under the gracious orders of H H the Maharaja in March 1906, so that the total amount to be distributed for the purposes of this temple is Rs 24-5-10 per mensem. The Deputy Commissioner has submitted a scale of expenditure for the aforesaid sum, but Vidwan Sivanalaghar, one of the Dharmadarsees of the temple, has been making personal representation for the amount being distributed in such a manner as would give a pay of Rs 4 or 5 for himself as Vicharanê-Karta or Manager of the temple on the ground that he has been for many years past been taking a deal of interest in the affairs of the Institution and is even now directing the inner working thereof. He also proposes that certain sums should be set apart for special worship during important feast days and suggests that no amount need be allotted for the car festival, as the said festival is conducted by devotees.

This is a temple in which the Dharmadarsis do not agree with each other.

Perhaps, further report may be obtained on these points before final orders are passed

I submit the above note by Mr Anantasami row who has had the matter under consideration for some time. So far as I can judge it seems to me that the scale proposed by the Dy Comm on the recommendations of the Dharma Dasis may be adopted with a slight variation, viz that the reserve for the Rathotsava may be kept as a surplus for any Special expenditure instead of being used for feeding during ~~out~~ Car festivals - an item of ~~exp~~ charity that should be left to private undertaking.

It seems to be quite out of Question to use any part of the tasdik to pay one of the Dharmadasis as Zimmala -char Mudras his absurd cannot be sanctioned 7/8/08 KVR

I understand that the watchman of the temple is paid by Govt. & perhaps he is included in the Special estt kept to ~~look~~ take care of Tippu Sultan's Palace in the Fort. It does not seem to be necessary to interfere with this arrangement at present.

I understand that certain misunderstanding exist between some of the Dharmadarsis viz Venkatāramanaiya & Tirumalachar & it is a matter for consideration whether ~~a new set~~ a new set of Dharmadarsis may not be appointed to secure more harmonious working.

Proceedings of the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore, Muzrai, dated 8th May 1906.

READ—

Petition Registered No. 3815, dated the 5th March 1906 from Pandit N. Tirumalachar and others applying for a tasdik grant of Rs. 30 per mensem to the Sri Venkataramanaswamy temple in the Bangalore Fort.

No. 5109-12, DATED BANGALORE, 8TH MAY 1906.

ORDER THEREON.—The Sri Venkataramanaswamy temple is a very ancient and important Muzrai institution in the Fort of Bangalore, endowed with a small cash grant of Rs. 4-5-10 per mensem or Rs. 52-6-0 per annum. A largely signed petition of the citizens of Bangalore has been received praying for a monthly grant of Rs. 30 as the present tasdik of Rs. 4-5-10 per mensem is quite insufficient for carrying out the daily services in the temple. The Government consider that the request deserves favorable consideration, and they are accordingly pleased to sanction an additional grant of Rs. 20 (twenty) per mensem to the temple from State revenues with effect from 1st April 1906.

2. The additional charge for the current official year will be treated as an additional grant, and the Comptroller to Government is requested to include the grant for future years in the Muzrai budget. The institution will be a "Major" one in accordance with para 14 of the Government Proceedings No. 2892-901—Muz. F. 5-96, dated the 19th March 1904.

3. The Superintendent of Inam Settlements is requested to include the additional grant sanctioned above in the Provincial Ready Money Inam Register and issue a fresh Title Deed therefor.

4. The Deputy Commissioner of the Bangalore District is requested to submit at once a report as to the best arrangements to be made for the efficient management of the temple, together with proposals as to the scale of expenditure that may be fixed for the temple, taking into consideration the old tasdik it was enjoying, the additional grant now sanctioned and the pay of the care-taker which is now being met from other sources.

Government Proceedings No. 5109-12, dated 8th May 1906, sanctioning an additional Tasdik of Rs. 20-0-0 per mensem, to the Sri Venkataramanaswamy temple in the Fort, Bangalore City.

Letter No. 57, dated 28th November 1907, from the Deputy Commissioner, Bangalore District, submitting a scale of expenditure in the Institution as called for in the above.

No. 868-9—MUZ. F. 39 of 1898, DATED BANGALORE, 27TH AUGUST 1908.

ORDER THEREON.—The original cash grant assigned to the Sri Venkataramanaswamy temple in the Fort, Bangalore City, was Rs. 4-5-10 per mensem. A further grant of Rs. 20 per mensem having been made in favor of the Institution under the Government Proceedings of the 8th May 1906 read above, a total sum of Rs. 24-5-10 is available for expenditure for the purposes of this temple. The Deputy Commissioner has submitted a scale of expenditure for the aforesaid sum as noted in the margin, but Vidwan Tirumalachar, one of the Dharmadarsis of the temple, has made representations for the amount being distributed in such a manner as would leave a sum of Rs. 4 or 5 to be allotted as pay for himself as Vicharanekarta or Manager of the temple on the ground that he has been for many years past taking interest in the affairs of the Institution.

To be kept in deposit for car festival ...	5	0	0
Total ...	24	5	10

2. The scale of expenditure proposed by the Deputy Commissioner appears suitable and is accordingly sanctioned, with this variation, viz., that the amount proposed to be reserved for the Rathotsavam should be kept as a surplus for any special expenditure, instead of being used for feeding during car festivals, an item of charity that should be left to private undertaking. The utilization of any part of the tasdik to pay one of the Dharmadarsis as proposed by Tirumalachar does not meet with the approval of Government. If at any time a separate Manager is found to be necessary any person appointed as such should not be a Dharmadarsi of the temple.

3. The present watchman of the temple is included in the special establishment maintained by Government to take care of Tippu Sultan's Palace in the Fort and this arrangement will continue until further orders.

4. Government understand that certain misunderstandings exist among the Dharmadarsis and they consider that it would be desirable to reconstitute the committee of Dharmadarsis with such modifications of personnel as may be necessary. The Deputy Commissioner is therefore requested to submit proposals in this behalf, so as to secure harmonious working.
